

TECHNICAL ADVISORY

DIVISION OF MOTORIST SERVICES

DATE: 1/30/26	Technical Advisory (TA) DL 26-002
SUBJECT: Knowledge & Skills Exams – English Only

Overview:

Knowledge exams for all classifications of driver licenses, except for Commercial Learner’s Permit (CLP) and Commercial Driver’s License (CDL) are currently offered in several languages. CLP and CDL knowledge exams are available in English and Spanish.

Beginning February 6, 2026, all knowledge and skill exams will be administered in English only, including exams given orally. The Florida Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles remains committed to ensuring safe roadways for all Floridians and visitors. This change promotes clear communication, understanding of traffic laws, and responsible driving behavior.

Details:

Effective February 6, 2026, all knowledge and skill exams will be administered in English only, including exams given orally.

The ADLTS system has been updated to reflect this change. Language translation services will no longer be allowed for either knowledge or skills testing. Any printed exams in other languages should be discarded.

Conclusion:

If you need additional information, please contact your next level of management.